

European Seminar

Land Use, Land Cover and Habitats issues in terms of INSPIRE

Challenges for a sustainable development in Europe

A Seminar for public and private actors active in the field of spatial planning in Europe

Brussels, 21 September 2011, 13.30 - 17.30
Committee of the Regions (CoR), room JDE51
99 Rue Belliard - Brussels

Project co-financed by the EU

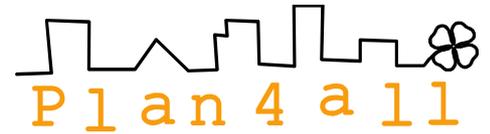

hosted by

EUROPEAN UNION

Committee of the Regions

Land Use, Land Cover and Habitats issues in terms of INSPIRE
Challenges for a sustainable development in Europe
Brussels, 21 September 2011

Venue: Committee of the Regions, 99 Rue Belliard, Brussels
Room JDE51

13.30 Registration at the entrance hall

Chair: María Cabello, HLanData Coordination, TRACASA

14.00 Welcome address, Krister Olson, DG INFSO, European Commission

14.10 Land Use and Land Cover as essential information for integrated territorial development, Hugo De Groof, Chief Scientist and Researcher, DG ENV, European Commission

14.30 The context of Land Use and Land Cover in INSPIRE – experiences from the TWG Land Use Land Cover, François Salgé, Ministry of Ecology, Sustainable Development, Transports and Housing, Government of France

14.50 Challenges of bio-diversity in Europe: the view of the European Environment Agency, Ronan Uhel, European Environmental Agency (EEA), Copenhagen

15.10 Land Use Policies for sustainable high-density cities, Pierre Laconte, Former President of ISOCARP

15.30 Coffee break

16.00 HLanData: Land Use and Land Cover, Delia Sola Giménez, HLanData Coordinator, Government of Navarra

16.20 Inspired Habitats: management of Europe's bio-diversity, Mariano Navarro, Habitats Coordinator, Tragsa

16.30 From examples of deployment of interoperable regional & local spatial planning infrastructures in Poland towards Evidence-Based Policy and Spatial Monitoring, Robert Lach, Secretary of NCP of Plan4all project in Poland

16.50 Conclusions and Discussion.

17.30 Closing

This event is free of charge but registration is compulsory.

Register now via the online registration system of the HLanData website

www.hlandata.eu